

Introducing BCOC (Bhanushali Chamber Of Commerce) - a registered non-profit organization inspired by SKBSST under Section 8 of the Companies Act 2013. Our vision is "Let's Grow Together," focusing on Networking, Upskilling, and Economic Growth.

The MOU, a symbol of the collaborative spirit between BCOC and VES Business School, was established with the overarching goal of empowering our learners. As a direct result of this collaboration, we celebrated the graduation ceremony of our pioneering batch of "Super 30" digital marketing program, achieving a momentous milestone in our journey to uplift and educate our learners.

The convocation ceremony witnessed the presence of distinguished individuals, including Shailesh Joisher, committee member from SKBSST, Dr. Harshad Mange, President of BCOC, CA Manoj Dama, a senior partner from one of the Big4 Firm , Industrialist Shankar Mav from Caprolactam Chemicals Ltd., and Govind Mange were also among the key figures who graced the occasion, inspiring learners to leverage such remarkable initiatives.

Shailesh Joisher, drawing from his extensive experiences, not only congratulated the graduates but also imparted invaluable advice, emphasizing the importance of continuous self-improvement in line with market demands.

Dr. Harshad Mange shed light on BCOC's commitment to upskilling, extending from learning to internships and job opportunities. In doing so, BCOC is diligently creating a comprehensive solution for learners, providing them with the tools to seize opportunities and succeed.

Shankar Mav expressed his overwhelming satisfaction at the completion of the first batch and shared the journey that led to the establishment of BCOC. It was a vision that, after years of hard work, has now culminated in a thriving community.

CA Manoj Dama recounted his personal journey from the annoyance of unsolicited marketing calls to the modern era of digital marketing, where customer searches lead to tailored offerings that focus on their needs. He emphasized the importance of staying updated in today's fast-changing technological landscape, highlighting how leveraging technology can drive business success and brand strength.

The VES Business School working closely with BCOC to offer customized support to Bhanushali learners, enhancing their career prospects. Mr. Sandeep Bharadwaj, the Director of VES Business School, pledged unwavering support, emphasizing the importance of empowering the younger generation and ensuring they have access to exceptional opportunities.

But this is just the beginning. BCOC proudly welcomed the second batch of 'Super 30' learners in digital marketing, providing them with the same promising opportunities.

BCOC is committed to empowering learners by continuously exploring and launching innovative courses on various subjects, including ZohoBooks, Understanding Capital Markets, and Financial Literacy. Moreover, BCOC is in the process of actively planning the launch of a community management platform, intended to unite Bhanushali individuals from across the globe in one centralized platform, promoting mutual support and fostering collective growth.

The convocation ceremony of the first batch and the induction ceremony of the second batch concluded with a sense of optimism, as BCOC remains committed to nurturing talent and creating an impactful platform for its community's growth and development.
